VOL. 2 GLENDALE (Los Angeles Postoffice) CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY NOVEMBER 29, 1919. NO. 52

CHAPTER A. H.

Chapter A. H., of the P. E. O., were entertained at the home of Mrs. Andrew Stephenson on South Central Avenue last week. Luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Sara Logan and Mrs. Bessie Mabry. Mrs. Claud Case, president of Chapter B. A. was guest. Mrs. H. P. Goodwin read a Thanksgiving paper. Twenty ladies were present.

CRANDALL-DAVIS

Among the recent weddings which will interest our readers, is that of Miss Charlotte Davis to Cecil Crandall, which took place last week at the Davis home on Salem Street, with Rev. Cole officiating.

Both the contracting parties were students at Glendale Union High, Mr. Crandall being an accomplished violinist, whose services were always in demand during his school years, while Miss Davis took active part along all school lines, and is especially interested in social work at the Congregational Church.

The happy couple have returned from their honeymoon trip and are at home in the Crandall property on Salem Street, which has been refitted for their use.

SISTERHOOD

The Jewish Sisterhood of Glendale held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Myron Barnett, 643 North Jackson Street, Thursaday, November 20th, with chairman Mrs. E. W, Kinney presiding.

After a short business session, the following program was given. A poem, "Spin Cheerfully,' by Mrs. Joseph Melzer, a paper on Philanthropics was read by Miss Eva Daniels and current events were given by Mrs. Kinney. The members made thirty-six candy bags during the course of the afternoon for the festival season at which time they will celebrate for the children. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

NEW CATHOLIC ORDER

An organization to be known as the Young Ladies Institute has just been founded in Glendale and forty candidates were initiated on Wednesday evening at Masonic Hall.

It will be to the Catholic Women, what the Knights of Columbus is to the men. Those elected to office were:

Miss Susan Wendell, president.

Miss Cecilia Billington, Vice-president.

Miss Edna May Lawson, Financial Secretary.

Miss Walsh, Treasurer.

The object is to bring the young women of the Church together for social enjoyment.

PAY YOUR TAXES NOW

Monday is the last day in which you can pay your taxes and avoid the penalty. Your remittance must be in the County Treasurer's office by 6 P. M., Monday, December 1st, or a penalty of 15 per cent is added thereto.

This now applies to the Glendale City taxes as well as the County taxes, as both are now payable to W. O. Welch, County Tax Collector.

If not convenient to go to the Tax Collector's office in Los Angeles next Monday, send a certified check or bank draft by mail, for at least the first half of your taxes so that it will reach the office that day.

ADVENTISTS

The Parent Teacher Association of the Glendale Seventh Day Adventist Church School entertained at the home of Elder J. A. Stevens, 127 S. Everett Street, Saturday evening. A fine program was given by the young people of the church and school. Mrs. J. D. Baker, president of the Association, called upon Elder Stevens to address the assembly which he did briefly but enthusiastically. Others who were among the speakers were H. G. Lucas, superintendent of church schools.

Dr. C. A. Burrows, chairman of the school. board addressed those present, as also did Mrs. W. G. Wheatley, principal of the church school, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Fowler, and Mrs. D. Miller, teachers in the school.

LEGION DANCE

The dance given by the Glendale Post American Legion Saturday evening at Masonic Temple was a splendid success and enjoyed by all from the opening strain to the evening's end. This being the second dance of a series, there is no doubt that their popularity is assured.

INTERMEDIATE TEACHERS

Twenty teachers of the Intermediate School enjoyed their annual dinner, which was served at the White Inn. Miss Clara Midcalf, president of the Teachers Club presided as toastmistress. The speakers were R. D. White, Miss Frances Jackson, Miss Carrie Noble and Mr. Fullen.

Believe me, if you don't believe in yourself, how can you expect anyone to believe in you?

PROLONGED STRIKES IMPOSSIBLE

Out here in the West we have the largest and tallest trees in the world, but we don't have to saw their tops off to keep them from throwing the moon out of her orbit. Nature sees to it that they do not disturb the wondrous order of the sidereal system with their crowns and keeps their roots from bursting through to China. And nature also has seen to it that no part of the complicated living organism which is the modern industrial nation shall govern the whole for its selfish benefit. The stomach and the heart are indispensable organs, but they can't strike without causing their own death.

The 500,000 miners of bituminous coal must eat whether they work or not. If the union pays them a strike benefit of twelve dollars a week, their strike fund would be gone in half a month. In six weeks they would have to call upon organized labor as a whole for help, but by that time industry would be disturbed, so many millions would be out of work that little help would be forthcoming.

Similar considerations would govern the developments of a general and effective railroad strike. In a prolonged struggle the railroad men could not count on ample financial assistance from other labor groups because payrolls and working forces everywhere would have to be radically reduced. Therefore the strike would have to be won in the first two or three weeks or the strikers will lose.

For the preservation of its life the nation must use every possible means to keep its vital processes going in some fashion. That's what the President meant when he served notice on the coal miners that their contemplated strike was wrong legally and morally and would be resisted with all the resources of the nation. And the same kind of notice will be given the railroad men. If they go out, they will see an improvised organization to run the trains grow up before their eyes. No healthy nation can and will allow itself to be paralyzed through the refusal of a group to perform its usual function.—Sunset Magazine.

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts organization was founded in England in 1910 and was introduced into the United States in the same year. The object is to develop patriotism, dicipline, courage and self control in boys, as well as to put the golden rule into practice.

The unit of the organization is the "patrol," of from six to eight boys; a "troop" comprises two or more "patrols" and the "scoutmaster" is the officer in charge of the troop. Lieut. Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powel was the father of the Boy Scout movement in England, and Ernest Thompson Seton in the United States.

WILL LAY CORNER STONE AT VAN NUYS FOR NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH

On the 7th of last September, Rev. Father V. M. Egas, D. D., on his return from France, where he was chaplain for the A. E. F., was sent to Van Nuys by Rt. Rev. John J. Cantwell, Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles.

Rev. Father Egas had received then a great and hard task for he had no church, no residence, nothing in Van Nuys and he had to take charge of all the Catholic families scattered in the territory comprising Van Nuys, Marian, Owensmouth, Chatsworth and Calabazas. There are one hundred and three Catholic families in the territory under the care of Rev. Father Egas.

The activity and good will of these families have given to their Pastor a powerful assistance and after only two months of work the new Parish has its own grounds in the city of Van Nuys; the residence for the Priest is almost finished and the Church building will next Christmas be ready for services. All the expenses of this work amount to $15,000 and although the new congregation is not yet ready with all the money needed, help is expected from the public to accomplish what is already started.

Next Sunday, November 30th, Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Cantwell will visit Van Nuys and will perform the ceremony of the Benedictio and laying of the corner stone of the church building which is going to have as Titular, Patron St. Elizabeth.

A large parade of decorated automobiles will meet the Bishop outside of the town to give him a cordial welcome.

On the same premises of the Church, before the religious ceremony and at 1 o'clock sharp, a barbecue will be served to the public by the celebrated Mr. Joe Romero of Los Angeles.

SUGAR IN CUBA

Fred Peck, son of C. E. Peck, who together with his wife is visiting in Glendale, arrived from Cuba where for several years he has been employed in the building of lines to tap the big sugar plantations.

He states there is an immense accumulation of sugar because of the lack of vessels in which to transport it, and although he has no definite information, intimates it is being held for advancing prices. Nearly all of the mills of which there are many, are financed by American capital, and one mill alone has an output of a million bags, each bag weighing 320 pounds, and the storehouses are stacked.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The public is invited to an open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Tuesday evening, December 2nd. Speakers from the different Chambers of Commerce will address the assembly. Be strong for your home town. Come and boost.

Many inquiries relative to Glendale have been received from prospective citizens now living in Canada and Eastern States.

The membership is rapidly increasing, new members being received at every meeting. Women are admitted on the same terms as the men. The official staff include the following:

President, J. W. Usilton.

First Vice-President, Frank S. Chase

Second Vice-President, Dr. Jessie A. Russell.

Secretary, R. M. Jackson.

Treasurer, Frank Vesper.

Directors, H. P. Coker. J. W. Usilton, Frank S. Chase, O. A. Lane, D. H. Smith, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, George B. Woodberry, R. F. Kitterman, Mrs. C. E. Norton, Robert Jensen, Mrs. Harry Stockbridge, Miss Eva Daniels, Chas. A. Rudel, L. G. Scovern, Mrs. E. L. Finney, J. E. Peters, Mrs. E. V. Bacon, E. E. Green, Miss Cora Hickman and W. P. McMullin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. Clair entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. E. vomBruch at dinner in their home at 1250 South Maryland Avenue on Monday evening.

In celebration of the birthday anniversary of their teacher, the pupils of Miss Edith Lindsay surprised her with a floral shower on Saturday.

Mrs. A. Carlson of Los Angeles, is spending a few days at the home of her friend, Mrs. Perry Oswald of W. Cypress St.

TRUE GOSSIP

Glendale received a little surprise Monday evening. On the corner of Broadway and Brand Blvd., was seen a large crowd of people, and we heard lively music, as we drew nearer, we saw many men dressed in clown suits. Their suits were of the brightest colors, and fitting them loosely. They marched south on Brand Blvd. to Colorado, turned east, and stopped in front of the Elks Lodge. We then knew, why we had heard such good umsic; it was the Elk's Band.

Thursday morning, November 27, 1919, in the M. E. Church of Glendale, was held a Thanksgiving service. Rev. Ford preached the Thanksgiving sermon, which everyone enjoyed. Rev. Ford, in his evening sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday, said, in regard to Thanksgiving: "Isn't it nice that once a year we are given the privilege to gather together, for the sole purpose of Thanking God. He also said many striking things Thursday. If you were not there, you missed that.

Last week the Park Ave. store was broken into. The doors at the entrance of the store were locked, and were the rest. But some brazen person succeeded in breaking the lock and entered the store. A lady waiting for a car saw this person, and reported to the police. As it is difficult to know what has been disturbed in a grocery store, they know not what was stolen.

Jottings By The Way

By The Rambler

If religion money could buy, the rich would live and the poor would die.

Let the churches cater to the social side of life and mark the change. If this be an inovation it is worth trying. Man is by nature a sociable critter and from time immorrial has derived inspiration thru the association with his fellows.

Greater Glendale is growing. Whoop 'er up boys. Plenty of room—not rooms—but for rooms.

If as claimed, a drop of ink makes millions think what would a dollar's worth splashed upon the columns of this paper do for you?

Say, let's all sell out and move and settle down to business.

W. P. Green moved to Los Angeles this week.

Remember the poor and destitute. Christ gave all. What can we do? Whom can we serve?

Believe me, if you don't believe in yourself, how can you expect anyone to believe in you?

Glendale could clean out a lot of weeds. They are unsightly, unsanitary and dangerous.

Confidence and self preservation go hand in hand.

Optimism and Smiles! Let these twins do your work for you.

Do it now, Smile! Thank both of you.

As we have stated before it takes nerve to perpetrate these outrages, but somehow we always seem to get by with it.

Now, altogether! Let's advertise and let them know we're here, people.
